	Williams killed five Indians, but two climbed up the side of his house and shot him and he died.	Williams was able to kill five, even though he was outnumbered. That's pretty impressive, I wonder how hard that must have been. Indians also had guns, which I didn't know they had. How did they get guns?	<input type="checkbox"/> Background/context <input type="checkbox"/> What happened <input type="checkbox"/> Short/long-term effects <input type="checkbox"/> Significance

Williams' son visited Killbuck who was Shawnee, later. Killbuck said Williams was a "brave warrior"

Where did they go to visit Killbuck? Who was Killbuck?

Saying he was a brave warrior makes me think that Killbuck was there for the attack. Did Killbuck kill Vincent Williams?
